

The Helper

Ask the question “how can I help you” to at least 3 people after they have completed their turn in the daily scrum

The Listener

Listen intently to others contributions and speak to the whole team when it is your turn in the daily scrum

The Clarifier

Ask the question “can we talk after the daily scrum” to at least 2 other people after they have completed their turn.

The Updater

Provide a brief update and ask others to join you after the daily scrum if they want to know more.

The Deferer

Ask others if they can defer the conversation until after the daily scrum if a conversation begins to take a long time

The Pointer

Point to an imaginary Sprint Backlog on the wall when it is your turn to talk and update an imaginary task on the backlog when you are done.

The Realist

Raise the point that the team may not be able to complete all of the work for the current sprint and ask that the team talk more at the end of the daily scrum.

The Person In Need

Raise an impediment when it is your turn and ask for others to help you after the daily scrum

The Time Keeper

Keep an eye on the timer and say how many minutes are left when it is helpful to the team to know that

The Quiet Observer

Remain silent throughout the daily scrum. If someone asks you a question just say “I’m an observer, please carry on”
